MENUS

P r o v a n c e. The very same corners images of a stylish time of day, through beguiling landscapes that can capture even the most fastidious connoisseur's heart and mind. It is a place where you can experience Provence as few travelers can. Explore the Luberon, a region that is often considered the heart of Provence. With its ancient Roman ruins, charming villages, and bustling marketplaces, the Luberon is a must-see destination for any traveler. The Luberon Valley is a beautiful and idyllic area, known for its rolling hills, vineyards, and picturesque villages. It is a place where you can experience the Art of Living, a celebration of the simple pleasures of life.

The Luberon Valley is a UNESCO World Heritage site featured in this program. It was the colorful scenery and light of Provence that inspired artists such as Cézanne, Dufy, and Van Gogh. Today, the area is home to some of France's most beautiful landscapes, with vineyards stretching out as far as the eye can see.
