Greetings travelers,

Travel has a way of bringing us together—and what better way than with your alumni community? I'd love for you to join us on this upcoming journey. Together, we'll share new experiences, discover remarkable places, and create memories that last a lifetime. Here's why this trip is special:

- Travel with fellow alumni – connect, reminisce, and make new friends along the way
- Trusted partners – our collaboration with Go Next and their cruise suppliers means you'll be in excellent hands
- Dedicated Program Manager – a Go Next professional will be with us to ensure a seamless, worry-free experience from start to finish
- Support your alumni community – every trip you take also helps strengthen and sustain our alumni programs

A true adventure – explore new cultures, cuisines, and experiences while sharing the journey with like-minded alumni Book today – space is limited, and reserving early ensures the best value and availability

These trips are more than vacations—they're opportunities to travel with confidence, support our alumni community, and share the adventure with friends old and new.

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu
Senior Travel Program Manager

Southeast Sea Islands

Usher in the most magical time of year with a sailing along the storied Intracoastal Waterway, where the festive spirit of the American South comes alive in full splendor. Celebrate the timeless elegance and rich heritage of this beloved region on a 7-night holiday voyage aboard American Cruise Lines' American Glory. Beginning with a hotel stay in the historic port of Charleston — draped in its finest seasonal charm — this enchanting cruise carries you on a serene journey down the Southeastern coast, where history, natural beauty, and the warmth of the holiday season intertwine at every turn

Enjoy South Carolina's blooming Camellias as you depart from Charleston and make way for Beaufort. Wander through the historic district of Beaufort, known for its beautifully preserved architecture and moss-draped oak trees. Hilton Head awaits with its pristine beaches. Take a leisurely stroll along the sandy shores or indulge in the island's arts and culture scene. Continue your journey to Savannah to encounter gothic masterpieces, like the Cathedral Basilica of St. John the Baptist. Relax and rejuvenate as you glide past coastal marshes and charming waterfront communities along the Intracoastal Waterway. Discover the Golden Isles on Jekyll Island, historically referred to as the "Millionaire's Village," where some of America's wealthiest families once vacationed. Conclude your voyage on the charming Amelia Island, known for its Victorian-era architecture.

AMERICAN GLORY

Coastal Cat | 100 Guests

American Glory blends the best qualities of expedition adventure cruising with the refinement, luxury, stability, and land proximity of river cruising. Observation and sitting areas available at the bow, while a unique Swim/Activity Platform at the stern of the ship features a tender for local exploration. The shallow draft of the vessels allows rare access into small ports and ability to travel on almost any river or waterway.

Aboard American Glory, land is never out of sight, allowing guests even more time to explore each port. The modern interior offers an unprecedented level of comfort and elegance and evokes a sense of pride and appreciation for U.S. history. The choice of color palettes, furnishings, and artwork envelops guests in a serene and relaxing atmosphere. As you cruise, relax in your luxurious staterooms and enjoy a front row seat to the beautiful passing scenery.

DINING

- Open seating at every meal in the glass-enclosed Dining Salon on the Main Deck
- Informal atmosphere – seating is unassigned and dress is resort casual
- Exquisite cuisine – locally sourced and regionally inspired cuisine, prepared by our master chefs
- Meals are cooked to order, making dining a great time to share your experiences with companions and build new friendships
