Greetings travelers,

Travel has a way of bringing us together—and what better way than with your alumni community? I'd love for you to join us on this upcoming journey. Together, we'll share new experiences, discover remarkable places, and create memories that last a lifetime. Here's why this trip is special:

- Travel with fellow alumni – connect, reminisce, and make new friends along the way
- Trusted partners – our collaboration with Go Next and their cruise suppliers means you'll be in excellent hands
- Dedicated Program Manager – a Go Next professional will be with us to ensure a seamless, worry-free experience from start to finish
- Support your alumni community – every trip you take also helps strengthen and sustain our alumni programs

A true adventure – explore new cultures, cuisines, and experiences while sharing the journey with like-minded alumni Book today – space is limited, and reserving early ensures the best value and availability

These trips are more than vacations—they're opportunities to travel with confidence, support our alumni community, and share the adventure with friends old and new.

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu
Senior Travel Program Manager

THE PANAMA CANAL

Step back in time to the turn of the 20th century, when the dream of a shortcut between the Atlantic and Pacific was more than just a fantasy. It was a strategic imperative. The Panama Canal emerged as the solution to centuries of maritime challenge, offering a vital link for global trade and military strategy. Spearheaded by the United States and completed in 1914, its construction was a Herculean endeavor, fraught with peril and perseverance.

Today, the Panama Canal stands as an enduring symbol of human innovation and determination. Its significance transcends mere transportation, shaping geopolitics and commerce on an international scale. By providing a shortcut for ships traveling between the Atlantic and Pacific, it reduces voyage times, fuel consumption, and shipping costs, facilitating the movement of goods and fostering international trade. Moreover, it serves as a linchpin in the intricate web of global supply chains, connecting producers and consumers across continents.

But beyond its economic impact, the canal is a living testament to the resilience of the human spirit. It embodies the triumph of collaboration over adversity, as nations come together to navigate shared challenges and opportunities. As you cruise through its locks, you are not just witnessing history. You are experiencing the legacy of visionaries who dared to defy the odds and reshape the world as we know it.

ITINERARY

March 15: Panama City, Panama - Embark 1pm 🏠

Embark in Panama City, where 17th-century colonial streets meet cafe-lined plazas and coastal promenades.

March 16: Panama Canal Daylight Transit

A daylight passage through the Panama Canal offers a rare, close-up view of one of the world's great engineering achievements in action. As gates close and water rises, the ship is lifted from one level to the next before easing back down toward the opposite ocean, all experienced while onboard.

March 17: Cartagena, Colombia

Inside sun-drenched stone walls, Cartagena moves to an easy sea-side rhythm. Once central to Spanish defense and imperial trade in the Americas, that legacy still lingers in the city's local culture, heard in street music and tasted in coastal, spice-forward cuisine.

March 18: Santa Marta, Colombia

Set between sea and mountains, Santa Marta carries a quieter coastal energy. Shaded streets, open-air markets, and simple seafood kitchens reflect daily life shaped by Indigenous roots, colonial history, and fertile landscapes.

March 19: Oranjestad, Aruba

Oranjestad, Aruba's capital and largest city, is shaped by trade winds, colorful Dutch architecture, and an enduring aloe plant heritage woven into the island's history. Multilingual conversation, steady breezes, and an outdoor way of life define this city's relaxed, Aruban character.

🏠 Go Beyond Pre/Post-Cruise Location Port locations and times may be subject to change.

⚓ Anchor Port : Notes an anchor off shore. In this case, a tender will be used to take you ashore.

Great Stirrup Cay

March 20: Willemstad, Curacao

In Willemstad, brightly painted waterfront buildings line the harbor, and the swinging Queen Emma Bridge slowly opens to let ships pass between neighborhoods. The historic center, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, reflects centuries of European and Caribbean influence.

March 21: Cruising the Caribbean Sea

Watch the Caribbean Sea stretch out before you in shades of blue and turquoise, with warm water and open horizons all around. A day at sea creates space for reading, reflection, and onboard enrichment.

March 22: Port Antonio, Jamaica 📍

Port Antonio sits between jungle-covered hills and a quiet, curved coastline, where rivers, waterfalls, and lush greenery surround this small harbor town. Nearby, the Blue Lagoon's deep, clear water attracts visitors for swimming and small-boat excursions.

March 23: Cruising the Atlantic Ocean

The open waters of the Atlantic have long carried sailors and explorers between continents. Spend a day at sea relaxing on deck, enjoying the ship's amenities, or attending an enriching lecture.

March 24: Great Stirrup Cay, Bahamas 📍

Great Stirrup Cay is a private island retreat with powder-soft beaches and crystal-clear waters. A destination that invites exploration, from snorkeling along coral gardens and kayaking shallow waters, to a variety of laid-back water sports enjoyed at an easy pace.

March 25: Miami, Florida - Disembark 8am

Your journey concludes in Miami, where Latin American culture and seaside urban life come together.

ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS MAY REQUIRE A PAID SHORE EXCURSION AND ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE CRUISE FARE.
