Greetings travelers,

Travel has a way of bringing us together—and what better way than with your alumni community? I'd love for you to join us on this upcoming journey. Together, we'll share new experiences, discover remarkable places, and create memories that last a lifetime. Here's why this trip is special:

- Travel with fellow alumni – connect, reminisce, and make new friends along the way
- Trusted partners – our collaboration with Go Next and their cruise suppliers means you'll be in excellent hands
- Dedicated Program Manager – a Go Next professional will be with us to ensure a seamless, worry-free experience from start to finish
- Support your alumni community – every trip you take also helps strengthen and sustain our alumni programs

A true adventure – explore new cultures, cuisines, and experiences while sharing the journey with like-minded alumni Book today – space is limited, and reserving early ensures the best value and availability

These trips are more than vacations—they're opportunities to travel with confidence, support our alumni community, and share the adventure with friends old and new.

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu
Senior Travel Program Manager

ITINERARY

February 21: Auckland, New Zealand - Embark 1pm 🏠

Embark in Auckland, a city spanning two harbors and volcanic hills. Polynesian heritage, sailing culture, and vibrant neighborhoods create a striking blend of natural beauty and modern life on the edge of the Pacific.

February 22: Rotorua (Tauranga), New Zealand

Rotorua is New Zealand's geothermal and cultural heart, where steam vents and mineral-rich earth reveal powerful volcanic forces beneath the surface. Maori traditions reflect generations of knowledge tied to the land, offering insight into how the environment and culture remain closely connected.

February 23: Gisborne, New Zealand ⚓

Gisborne is among the first places in the world to see the sunrise. Known for its Maori heritage and fertile land, this region tells deeper stories of settlement and cultural continuity, where traditions remain strong, and the landscape is shaped by the sea.

February 24: Napier, New Zealand

Napier is defined by reinvention. Rebuilt after a 1931 earthquake, its Art Deco architecture stands as a cohesive, elegant statement. Surrounding vineyards and coastal light add warmth, making this city a study in resilience, design, and New Zealand's modern identity.

February 25: Wellington, New Zealand

Compact, creative, and intellectually alive, Wellington rises between blue harbor waters and wind-sculpted hills. As the nation's capital, the city blends politics, art, and a strong food and coffee culture.

February 26: Timaru, New Zealand

Shaped by agriculture, trade, and community, Timaru reflects New Zealand's rural backbone and colonial past. Overlooking the Pacific, the city has an understated charm and appreciation for craftsmanship and open horizons.

February 27: Dunedin, New Zealand

Dunedin reflects its Scottish roots through stone architecture, academic tradition, and thoughtful atmosphere. Home to New Zealand's oldest university, the city values learning and heritage, set against a rugged coastline.

February 28: Cruising the Fjords of Milford Sound

Milford Sound is filled with natural drama. Sheer cliffs plunge into dark water, waterfalls unravel from clouded heights, and silence feels profound. Carved by ice and time, this landscape invites awe and reflection.

🏠 Go Beyond Pre/Post-Cruise Location Port locations and times may be subject to change.

⚓ Anchor Port: Notes an anchor off shore. In this case, a tender will be used to take you ashore.

March 1-2: Cruising the Tasman Sea

The Tasman Sea carries you between New Zealand and Australia, where rugged coastlines fade into open water and cloud-laced skies. Enjoy a day on the ship with time for reflection, learning, and onboard enrichment.

March 3: Hobart, Tasmania, Australia

Hobart blends maritime heritage with striking wilderness. Georgian-style streets line a working harbor, while surrounding hills, forests, and coastlines remain largely untouched, rugged, and windswept. Tasmania's story of exploration and industry is evident, complemented by a food culture rooted in cold seas and fertile soil.

March 4: Cruising the Bass Strait

Crossing the Bass Strait offers time to relax, read, and enjoy the gentle rhythm of the voyage. Savor a hand-crafted beverage on deck and watch the open water stretch from Tasmania to Australia.

March 5: Melbourne, Australia

In Melbourne, grand Victorian architecture gives way to streets filled with art, espresso culture, and independent bookstores. Known for its intellectual life and creative pulse, the city feels European in spirit, yet distinctly Australian, with food and design taken seriously.

March 6: Cruising the Bass Strait

A second day on the Bass Strait provides time for onboard enrichment. Participate in a hands-on cooking class, enjoy conversation with fellow travelers, or settle into a lounge on the pool deck and enjoy uninterrupted ocean views.

March 7: Sydney, Australia - Disembark 8am 📱

Disembark in Sydney, where the harbor shimmers beneath the recognizable white sails of the Sydney Opera House.

ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS MAY REQUIRE A PAID SHORE EXCURSION AND ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE CRUISE FARE.

EXTEND THIS TRIP Book a Back-to-Back Cruise!

Extend your trip on the East Australian Explorer cruise from March 7-20, 2027. Snorkel the Great Barrier Reef, meet Komodo dragons, and wander Bali's temples. Book Tasman Adventure and East Australian Explorer back to back.

Add EAST AUSTRALIAN EXPLORER

March 7 - 20, 2027 Starting at $3,149 • Sydney to Bali • Oceania Cruises' Riviera
