ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Casablanca to Lisbon & Andalusia

April 24 – May 3, 2027

Retrace ancient trade routes across two continents and four countries on an eight-night cruise from Casablanca, Morocco, to Lisbon, Portugal, aboard the exclusively chartered World Voyager. Visit spectacular port cities along the northeast African coast and the Iberian Peninsula — Casablanca, Rabat and Tangier, Morocco; Málaga and Seville, Spain; Gibraltar, United Kingdom; and Portimão and Lagos, Portugal. Step into Casablanca's remarkable Hassan II Mosque and admire the lovely Niaba gardens. Stand on the legendary Rock of Gibraltar, called the Pillars of Hercules by ancient Greeks and Romans, duck inside St. Michael's Cave and laugh at curious Barbary macaques. Wander through Lagos, a walled maritime city brimming with wonderful Portuguese architecture. While all these destinations share a legendary devotion to hospitality, each is markedly unique and will add depth to your travel mosaic.

Exclusive Highlights

— Cruise to the Iberian Peninsula from Africa on a memorable 8-night voyage.

— Enjoy an enlightening visit to the Mohammed V Mausoleum.

— Experience two UNESCO World Heritage Sites: the Cathedral of Seville and historic Rabat.

— Wander through Tangier's vibrant souks, where alleys overflow with spices, textiles and treasures, offering an authentic glimpse into the city's rich culture.

Dear University of Michigan alumni travelers,

Travel is an enriching part of our lives, connecting us to new worlds, new friends, and each other. At the Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, we've spent more than 60 years planning, perfecting, and executing extraordinary, exclusive trips for U-M travelers — trips you'd expect from, and for, the Leaders and Best. These adventures will take you beyond an ordinary visit and dive into the culture, history, cuisine, and lives of the locals at your destination.

Here are a few of the highlights you can expect from us:

Convenience: Our experience pays off. Every detail is planned and taken care of for you; all you have to do is pack your bag. The hardest part is selecting where to go next.

Educational Enrichment: All trips include educational content, with some featuring expert U-M faculty and staff traveling with your group.

Unique Explorations: Our tours are specially designed for U-M travelers, providing opportunities for spontaneous encounters and a great deal of independence wherever your journey takes you.

We invite you to explore our collection at alumni.umich.edu/travel.

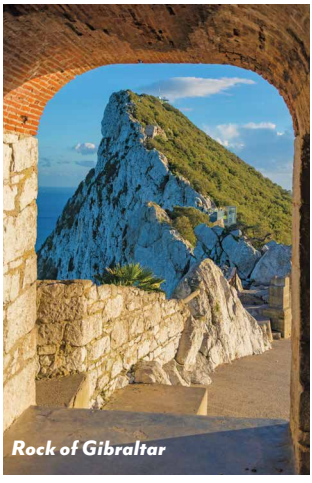

Our travel team is also happy to assist you at 855-764-0064 or alumnitravel@umich.edu.

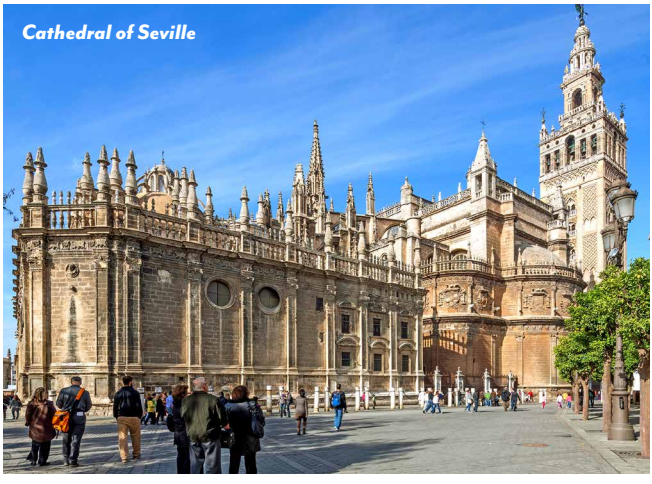

NOTE: The Alumni Travel program is a member benefit of the Alumni Association. Travelers, regardless of alumni status, must be a member to participate in our trips.

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu

Cathedral of Seville

Day 1 | April 24

Depart for Casablanca, Morocco.

Day 2 | April 25 D

Casablanca, Morocco | Embark

Upon arrival, embark the deluxe World Voyager.

Say hello to fellow travelers over dinner aboard the ship.

Day 3 | April 26 B-L-R-D

Casablanca | Rabat

Get to know Casablanca's seamless blend of North African and French cultures during today's excursion. Begin at the impressive Hassan II Mosque, perched on a promontory by the ocean, and admire its marble flooring and Moroccan details. Celebrated as one of Africa's largest mosques, it is one of only two open to non-Muslim visitors. Continue to Rabat, known for its relaxed, polished vibe. Dig into a traditional Moroccan lunch.

A panoramic tour of Rabat follows. Gaze at the Royal Palace of Rabat — fronted by expansive grounds and the Parliament of Morocco — and the Chellah, a peaceful, mysterious complex of ancient ruins, gardens and Islamic monuments. Witness the Hassan Tower, an unfinished 12th-century minaret that's one of Rabat's most iconic landmarks. Plus, step into the stately Mohammed V Mausoleum, the resting place of King Mohammed V and his sons, King Hassan II and Prince Moulay Abdallah.

Tonight, gather with fellow travelers for a Welcome Reception and Dinner.

Day 4 | April 27 B-L-D

Tangier

Over the centuries, ancient Tangier has welcomed writers, adventurers and artists, such as Matisse and Eugène Delacroix. Embrace the opportunity to explore the labyrinthine old medina and legendary souks. Listen to captivating stories while passing weavers and artisans with their crafts. Also, visit the vibrant Niaba Gardens, filled with bountiful floral displays, towering palm and cypress trees, fountains and sea views.

After a lunch of local cuisine, take advantage of leisure time to peruse the souks and experience daily life.

Day 5 | April 28 B-L-D

Málaga, Spain

Arrive in Málaga, located on the famous Costa del Sol, and set off to discover the city's rich history and captivating atmosphere.

Cleansing fountain, Casablanca

Roman Theater, Málaga

Begin at the main square, the Plaza de la Constitución, followed by a visit to the Málaga Cathedral. Stroll through the charming streets toward the harbor, pausing at the Mercado de Atarazanas, a beautiful 19th-century market hall celebrated for its Moorish-inspired stained glass and striking ironwork. Next, visit the Roman Theater, nestled at the base of the beautifully preserved Moorish palace-fortress overlooking the city. Wrap up today's tour at the modern waterfront promenade, where you can experience the contemporary art installations, palm-lined walkways, atmosphere and relaxing views. Travelers wishing for an active walk may continue up to the Alcazaba, built by Muslim rulers during the time of Al-Andalus.

Day 6 | April 29 B-L-D

Gibraltar, United Kingdom

Greet the morning in Gibraltar and disembark to visit The Rock of Gibraltar, considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. If you wish, walk up a steep road to stand on the "Top of the Rock" and take in views across the strait separating Europe and Africa. Continue to St. Michael's Cave, home to stunning stalagmite formations, and watch the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, Europe's only colony of wild monkeys. Explore the unique Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

Day 7 | April 30 B-L-D

Seville, Spain

Arrive in Seville after lunch and venture out on a guided walk to see the city's sites, including the colorful Santa Cruz neighborhood and the

Musician, Tangier

Alcazaba, Málaga

Plaza de España, Seville

Lagos

magnificent UNESCO-listed Seville Cathedral. Rising on the site of a former Moorish mosque, this magnificent Gothic cathedral began construction in 1401 and took more than a century to complete. Home to the tomb of Christopher Columbus, it features a striking blend of Moorish, Gothic, Renaissance and baroque elements that beautifully reflects the rich and diverse history of Seville.

Day 8 | May 1 B-L-D

Seville

Enjoy a morning at leisure in Seville, exploring streets lined with orange trees, alluring plazas and lively tapas bars that echo with the passionate rhythms of guitar and dance. By day, the city dazzles with historical grandeur, bustling cafés, music and a warm Andalusian spirit.

Day 9 | May 2 B-L-R-D

Portimão, Portugal | Lagos

Relax while cruising this morning before arriving in Portimão to explore the historic town of Lagos. Discover the statue of Infante Dom Henrique, honoring Prince Henry the Navigator, and visit the baroque Church of Santo António. Continue to the historic Mercado de Escravos, the site of Europe's first slave market, where the past comes vividly to life.

Join a Farewell Reception and Dinner tonight.

Day 10 | May 3 B

Lisbon | Disembark | Return to Home City

Transfer to the airport for your flight home.

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.

Cultural Crossroads

Nothing evokes mystery and intrigue quite like Morocco, a multicultural nation rich in royal tradition, delectable food and exquisite architectural treasures. Located directly across the Strait of Gibraltar from Spain, it is the land of colorful souks and lively medinas, mighty mosques and grand palaces. Our journey begins in Casablanca and the UNESCO-designated capital city of Rabat — setting the scene for the tapestry of stories that await as you cruise to the Andalusian coast of Spain and the Iberian Peninsula. Trace the rise and fall of ancient empires that conquered cities in this region, weaving a vibrant mosaic of art, religion and culture. This confluence and collaboration also ushered in advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy — sparking the catalyst for global trade at the crossroads of Africa and Europe that would ultimately change the world.
