European Coastal Cruise

Lisbon to London

Featured Guest Speaker
Dwight David Eisenhower II

May 2 –11, 2027

Retrace a mystical pilgrimage, discover modern architectural marvels, ascend to the top of a Gothic medieval masterpiece and remember the fallen at the D-Day beaches of Normandy as you connect the past to the present on this eight-night, deluxe itinerary. Cruise from Lisbon to London on a cultural odyssey that takes you to four countries — each offering a unique lens on the stories of European coastal civilizations that have played a pivotal role in world history. In Portugal, explore ancient Porto, UNESCO-designated for its Romanesque monuments, and walk in the footsteps of faithful pilgrims at Santiago de Compostela. Craft your own path in Bilbao, either with a visit to the Guggenheim Museum or with an enriching cooking demonstration. Then, marvel at an island that appears and disappears with the sea at Mont-Saint-Michel. As the journey draws to a close, spend a poignant day at Normandy's storied D-Day sites in the company of Dwight David Eisenhower II.

Dear University of Michigan alumni travelers,

Travel is an enriching part of our lives, connecting us to new worlds, new friends, and each other. At the Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, we've spent more than 60 years planning, perfecting, and executing extraordinary, exclusive trips for U-M travelers — trips you'd expect from, and for, the Leaders and Best. These adventures will take you beyond an ordinary visit and dive into the culture, history, cuisine, and lives of the locals at your destination.

Here are a few of the highlights you can expect from us:

Convenience: Our experience pays off. Every detail is planned and taken care of for you; all you have to do is pack your bag. The hardest part is selecting where to go next.

Educational Enrichment: All trips include educational content, with some featuring expert U-M faculty and staff traveling with your group.

Unique Explorations: Our tours are specially designed for U-M travelers, providing opportunities for spontaneous encounters and a great deal of independence wherever your journey takes you.

We invite you to explore our collection at alumni.umich.edu/travel.

Our travel team is also happy to assist you at 855-764-0064 or alumnitravel@umich.edu.

NOTE: The Alumni Travel program is a member benefit of the Alumni Association. Travelers, regardless of alumni status, must be a member to participate in our trips.

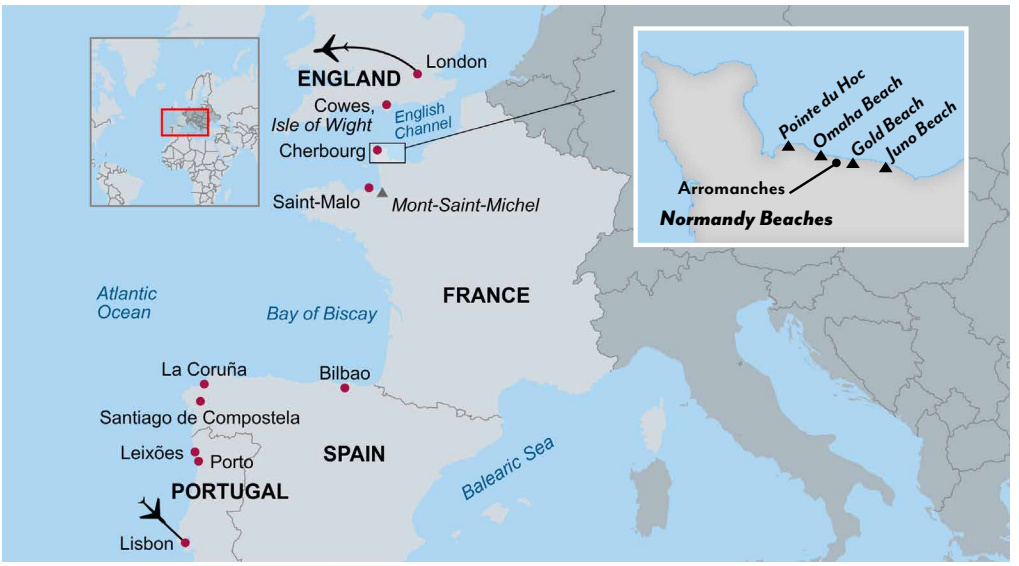

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu

Cowes, Isle of Wight

Day 1 | May 2

Depart your home city on an overnight flight to Portugal.

Day 2 | May 3 D

Lisbon, Portugal | Embark

Arrive in Lisbon and embark World Voyager.

Day 3 | May 4 B-L-R-D

Leixões | Porto

Delight in stunning views during breakfast while cruising toward Leixões for a day of discovery. Disembark for Porto, a UNESCO World Heritage site recognized for its Romanesque monuments and medieval old town, full of beautiful, symbolic buildings. Humans have occupied Portugal's second-largest city since the 8th century B.C., when excavations show evidence of a Phoenician trading settlement.

Set off on your chosen Traveler's Choice activity. Join a distinguished local purveyor and indulge in Porto's world-renowned port wine during an immersive tasting experience. Sample a curated selection of rich vintages thoughtfully paired with artisanal cheeses. Alternatively, you may join a walking tour of Porto's monuments, including the Palácio da Bolsa, the Stock Exchange Palace. This exquisite building has British Neoclassical and Palladian influences. Inside, gaze at elaborate paintings, décor and sculptures.

Attend tonight's Welcome Reception, followed by dinner.

Day 4 | May 5 B-L-D

La Coruña, Spain | Santiago de Compostela

Following breakfast; disembark for an excursion to the UNESCO-inscribed Santiago de Compostela. Located in the autonomous region of Galicia, it has been a world-renowned pilgrimage site since the 9th century, when a light was seen shining over a forgotten Roman tomb believed to be that of St. James the Great. Today, stroll along stone streets to the grand gathering square of Praza do Obradoiro, where you may admire the splendid Palacio de Rajoy. Visit the hallowed sanctuary of Spain's patron saint — a legendary cathedral that holds the remains of St. James — to marvel at the ornate blend of styles on its interior, ranging from Romanesque to baroque. This is the final destination of the legendary Camino de Santiago (Way of St. James), and you may see pilgrims and hikers arriving.

Port wine cellar

Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela

Day 5 | May 6 B-L-D

Santander | Bilbao

Take in pretty countryside panoramas on a drive to Bilbao. A member of the UNESCO Creative Cities Network, ancient Bilbao has become famous for its cultural transformation and innovations in architecture, interior design and fashion.

Apostle Santiago, Portico de la Gloria, Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela

Upon arrival in Bilbao, join your Traveler's Choice outing. Either tour a dynamic collection of modern and contemporary art at Frank Gehry's titanium-clad Guggenheim Museum or enjoy a Basque cuisine demonstration, including tastings! The Basque region is known for rich, flavorful cuisine where time-honored recipes and cutting-edge gastronomy coexist.

Day 6 | May 7 B-L-D

Day at Sea

Spend today gliding on the Bay of Biscay. Relax and enjoy the ship's many luxury amenities.

Day 7 | May 8 B-L-D

Saint-Malo, France | Mont-Saint-Michel

Disembark at Saint-Malo, the fortified French port city where maritime explorer Jacques Cartier was born in the 15th century. From here, travel to majestic Mont-Saint-Michel, a pilgrimage site for more than 1,000 years. Rising from a tidal plain that appears to be suspended above the sea, this UNESCO World Heritage site is a vision of soaring spires isolated beyond a stretch of saltwater marsh. Cobblestone streets weave through the village, culminating at the Mont-

Guggenheim Museum, Bilbao

Arromanches

Saint-Michel Abbey, a three-story Gothic masterpiece. Admire the serene cloisters, barrel-roofed réfectoire and Salle des Hôtes of the 13th-century La Merveille and the magnificent Église Abbatiale.

Join David Eisenhower for an engaging lecture about tomorrow's excursion.

Day 8 | May 9 B-L-D

Cherbourg | Normandy Beaches

From Cherbourg, make the solemn pilgrimage with David Eisenhower to the historic Normandy beaches, site of the largest seaborne invasion in history. Take a powerful and moving journey through history with guided visits to Pointe du Hoc and Omaha Beach, two of the most significant sites of the D-Day landings on June 6, 1944. Following lunch, join your group for a wreath-laying ceremony at the American Military Cemetery. Then continue to Arromanches with David Eisenhower to see the remnants of the Mulberry "A" harbor, which was transported across the English Channel to support Allied landings on the Normandy beaches.

Return to the ship and share your day's experiences over dinner with friends.

Day 9 | May 10 B-L-R-D

Cowes, Isle of Wight

Arrive in Cowes on the Isle of Wight, a world-famous sailing destination known for its vibrant maritime

Normandy American Cemetery

ambience. Spend time at leisure making your own discoveries. At the heart of the town is Cowes Yacht Haven, a premier marina offering top-class facilities and direct access to the lively high street, filled with shops, cafes and nautical charm. Raise a toast to your journey at a Farewell Reception.

Day 10 | May 11 B

London, England | Disembark | Return to Home City

After breakfast, disembark and transfer to the airport for your return flight home.

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.
