Greetings travelers,

Travel has a way of bringing us together—and what better way than with your alumni community? I'd love for you to join us on this upcoming journey. Together, we'll share new experiences, discover remarkable places, and create memories that last a lifetime. Here's why this trip is special:

- Travel with fellow alumni – connect, reminisce, and make new friends along the way
- Trusted partners – our collaboration with Go Next and their cruise suppliers means you'll be in excellent hands
- Dedicated Program Manager – a Go Next professional will be with us to ensure a seamless, worry-free experience from start to finish
- Support your alumni community – every trip you take also helps strengthen and sustain our alumni programs

A true adventure – explore new cultures, cuisines, and experiences while sharing the journey with like-minded alumni Book today – space is limited, and reserving early ensures the best value and availability

These trips are more than vacations—they're opportunities to travel with confidence, support our alumni community, and share the adventure with friends old and new.

Sincerely,

Rachele Neu

ATLANTIC CROSSING - NAUTICAL NIGHTS

Experience charm, history, and elegance from London to New York on this 16-night cruise aboard Oceania Cruises' Sirena. Depart from the historic Port of Southampton near London and make way for Dublin. Enjoy a tour of the majestic St. Patrick's Cathedral. Then, spend a day in Londonderry and stop to see Dunluce Castle, a 500-year-old ruin perched dramatically on a sea cliff. Follow a path across the Atlantic and settle in for an Icelandic lobster feast in Reykjavik. Take a boat trip around Isafjordur where you can fish along the bay, then continue west to Newfoundland's colorful St. John's. Experience French charm in St. Pierre and Miquelon and get a taste of Nova Scotia in Sydney and Halifax, where coastal villages and iconic lighthouses dot the shoreline. Your voyage ends in New York, a dynamic metropolis of history, innovation, and possibilities.

On board, enjoy small-ship luxury, regionally inspired dishes, hand-crafted beverages, panoramic views, and more.

ITINERARY

September 3: London (Southampton), England - Embark 1pm
Embark near London from Southampton. From royal landmarks to maritime heritage, this port offers a fitting beginning for a journey shaped by Britain's seafaring past.

September 4: Cruising the English Channel
A day at sea invites both reflection and engagement, whether strolling the deck, enjoying the ship's amenities, or attending an enriching lecture while the horizon shifts endlessly around you.

September 5: Dublin (Dun Laoghaire), Ireland
From Dun Laoghaire, travel inland to Dublin, known for its Georgian squares, red-brick terraces, and long literary tradition. Landmarks such as Trinity College and the Book of Kells highlight its role in education and storytelling, while riverside walks and local pubs reflect the city's everyday rhythm.

September 6: Londonderry, Northern Ireland
Londonderry is one of the few remaining fully walled cities in Ireland, with 17th-century ramparts encircling the historic center. Visitors can walk the walls, with views extending across the River Foyle.

September 7-8: Cruising the Atlantic Ocean
Two days at sea bring a gradual transition across the Atlantic, with wide horizons and ever-changing skies, allowing you to settle into the rhythm of the voyage.

September 9: Reykjavik, Iceland
In Reykjavik, Iceland's vibrant capital, colorful buildings and Nordic design stands alongside historic harbor streets. Nearby geothermal pools, and volcanic landscapes highlight the natural environment that defines life in this lively city.

September 10: Isafjordur, Iceland
Isafjordur sits deep within Iceland's remote Westfjords, surrounded by steep mountains and narrow fjords. The town's wooden merchant houses and maritime museum recall centuries of fishing culture in one of the country's most isolated coastal regions.

Go Beyond Pre/Post-Cruise Location Port locations and times may be subject to change.
Anchor Port : Notes an anchor off shore. In this case, a tender will be used to take you ashore.

ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS MAY REQUIRE A PAID SHORE EXCURSION AND ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE CRUISE FARE.

September 11-13: Cruising the Atlantic Ocean
Three days across the North Atlantic creates space to settle into daily routines on board. Mornings might begin with coffee on deck, followed by an enrichment program or culinary class, with the rest of the day unfolding at your own pace.

September 14: St. John's, Newfoundland, Labrador, Canada
St. John's is one of North America's oldest cities, known for its colorful row houses and rugged coastal setting. Signal Hill overlooks the harbor, where Marconi received the first transatlantic wireless signal, adding a defining moment of communication history to the area.

September 15: St. Pierre & Miquelon, France ⚓
Off the coast of Newfoundland, Saint-Pierre and Miquelon is a taste of French culture in North America. Colorful buildings, cafés, and quiet streets capture a small island community shaped by both Europe and the Atlantic.

September 16: Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada ⚓
Sydney sits on Cape Breton Island, where Celtic heritage remains part of daily life. The nearby Cabot Trail is recognized for its sweeping ocean views and dramatic highland scenery.

September 17: Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada
Halifax combines maritime history with a walkable waterfront and cultural landmarks. The historic Halifax Citadel overlooks the city, while the boardwalk, Maritime Museum of the Atlantic, and nearby piers trace its role in Canada's Atlantic story.

September 18: Cruising the Atlantic Ocean
A final day at sea brings a chance to relax and reflect as your journey approaches its final destination.

September 19: New York, New York- Disembark 8am
Disembark in New York, home to world-famous landmarks like Central Park, Times Square, and the Statue of Liberty, marking a memorable conclusion to your transatlantic crossing.
