Day 1: Depart U.S. for Marseille, France

Day 2: Arrive Marseille/Aix-en-Provence We arrive in Marseille and transfer to Aix-en-Provence (“Aix”). This evening we meet our Odysseys Tour Director and fellow travelers at a briefing about the journey ahead, followed by a welcome dinner at our hotel. D

Day 3: Aix-en-Provence Today we discover this lovely “City of Fountains” on a walking tour, admiring Aix’s rich architectural heritage and the “Vielle Ville” (Old Town). After a guided visit to the Atelier Cézanne, where artist Paul Cézanne worked from 1902 to 1906, we have lunch at a local restaurant. The remainder of the day is free to enjoy Aix as we wish and for dinner on our own. B,L

Day 4: Aix-en-Provence/Arles/Nîmes We travel this morning to Arles, once part of Roman Gaul then a clarion of Christianity, and more recently, where Van Gogh painted. We encounter the city’s rich history on our walking tour, which includes a visit to the two-tiered Roman Amphitheater, a UNESCO site dating to 90 CE and preserved virtually intact; and Place du Forum, setting for Van Gogh’s painting “Café du Nuit.” Then we have free time for lunch on our own before we depart for Nîmes, where we dine tonight at a local restaurant. B,D

Day 5: Nîmes/Avignon After a brief walking tour this morning, we have time on our own to explore the monuments to Nîmes’ Roman heyday, including the 2,000-year-old Nîmes Arena; the perfectly preserved Maison Carrée; and the Tour Magne, the only remaining tower of the original city walls. This afternoon we depart for Avignon, capital of Christendom in the Middle Ages. Here we visit the historic city center with its 12th-century Romanesque Cathedral, the remains of the Saint-Bénézet Bridge, and the Gothic Palais des Papes (Papal Palace) where the Avignon popes lived during the 14th century. Tonight we join a local chef for a Provençal cooking class followed by dinner. B,D

Day 6: Nîmes/Les-Baux-de-Provence/Saint-Rémy-de-Provence We set out this morning for Les Baux, a gem of a medieval village perched atop a rock spur. Our first stop: the Carrières de Lumière multimedia/art exhibit set in a former stone quarry. Then we explore Les Baux itself, considered one of the country’s most beautiful villages. We continue on to Saint Rémy, where we enjoy lunch together before visiting the Gallo-Romanesque jewel of St-Paul de Mausole, where Van Gogh was confined after severing his ear. B,L

Day 7: Nîmes/Pont du Gard/Lyon Heading north this morning, we stop at Pont du Gard, the 1st-century Roman aqueduct whose three graceful tiers of arches span the Gardon River. Then we travel on to Lyon, France’s third largest city set at the confluence of the Rhone and Saône rivers. We dine tonight at a local restaurant in this region famed for its gastronomy. B,D

Day 8: Lyon Today’s tour begins at the beloved Basilica of Notre-Dame de Fourvière, overlooking riverside Lyon from its hilltop perch. Next: the ruins of the Gallo-Roman theater, built in 15 BCE and still in use today. We then visit Vieux Lyon, the city’s well-preserved Renaissance district, followed by a look at some of Lyon’s jaw-dropping – and renowned – trompe l’oeil street art. The remainder of the day is free for independent exploration before we dine tonight at a local restaurant. B,D

Day 9: Lyon/Annecy We set out today for the French Alpine town of Annecy on the shores of its namesake lake. Streetside canals and the Thiou River run through the picturesque Old Town, which we discover on a walking tour along the narrow lanes flanked by pastel-colored houses. We visit the vibrant

We travel Burgundy’s wine route.

Sunday market then enjoy a cruise on Lake Annecy, fed by the pristine waters of the surrounding Alps. B

Day 10: Lyon/Pérourges/Dole/Dijon Our first stop today is in medieval hilltop Pérourges, another of France’s most beautiful villages with its cobblestone streets and byways lined with half-timbered houses. Next, we visit untouristed Dole, boasting a well-preserved historic center and where we enjoy a walking tour. After time for lunch on our own, we tour the one-time home of scientist Louis Pasteur. Then we continue on to Dijon and our hotel, where we dine together tonight. B,D

Day 11: Dijon/Beaune/Route des Grands Crus This morning we travel to Beaune, gateway to the

Burgundy wine region. We take a leisurely walking tour of this walled town then visit the renowned Hôtel Dieu Museum, part of the Hospices de Beaune complex. One of the finest surviving Renaissance buildings in France, the museum is home to the Beaune Altarpiece (often called “The Last Supper”). We then embark on a tour highlight: the journey along the Route des Grands Crus, Burgundy’s fabled trail through the vineyards and villages comprising one of France’s most treasured wine regions. We have the opportunity to sample some area vintages as we stop for lunch and at a local winery before we return to Dijon late this afternoon. B,L

Day 12: Dijon Known for its rich history and culture – and of course, its wine and namesake mustard – Dijon boasts a prized architectural heritage ranging from Gothic to art deco, which we see on today’s tour of the Burgundian capital. Following our tour, we’re free to explore as we wish. Tonight, we visit a local restaurant for dinner together. B,D

Day 13: Dijon/Chablis/Paris En route to Paris today, we stop in Chablis, renowned for its signature dry white wines. We enjoy a walking tour of the medieval village and visit the 13th-century Collégiale Saint-Martin church. Then we have time on our own for lunch and to explore as we wish, maybe visiting one of wineries in the town center. Mid-afternoon we travel on to Paris, where an orientation tour takes us past many of the city’s highlights. Dinner tonight is on our own in this city of fine cuisine. B

Day 14: Paris This morning we visit the Opéra Garnier, the opulent theater that stands as a symbol of the city (and as the setting for The Phantom of the Opera). If Opéra Garnier is not available, we’ll tour the Musée Rodin, dedicated to the works of sculptor Auguste Rodin. Our afternoon is free for independent exploration; tonight we celebrate our Gallic sojourn over a farewell dinner. B,D

Day 15: Depart for U.S. We transfer to the airport this morning for our return flight to the U.S. B

Your final tour documents, including airline itineraries (with e-ticket numbers), will be available in the portal two to three weeks before departure.

Single Travelers

We welcome single travelers, and offer a limited number of single accommodations on each tour. Because hotel and cruise rates are priced by the room or cabin, the per person cost for accommodations occupied by one person is higher than that shared by two people. We will not charge a fee for any changes made to your reservation outside of 95 days before departure. If your reservation changes from double occupancy to single occupancy for any reason or at any time, you will be charged the single supplement. Please note that no changes to your name(s) or departure date are allowed within 95 days of departure. No changes to your reservation can be made within 30 days of departure.

Required Information

Upon reservation, we will need to obtain from you the following, in accordance with the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight program (for details, please visit www.tsa.gov), as well as for our international travel partners: your full name as it appears on your passport, date of birth, and gender. In addition, airlines may require that we provide them with your contact information prior to departure. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, or if you use a different passport than originally cited, you will be responsible for charges associated with the ticket's reissue.

Travel Documents

A passport valid for at least six months after the completion of your tour is required for U.S. citizens on all of our international tours. For all domestic tours, where we fly into a U.S. city to begin the tour or out of a U.S. city at the end, you must present a valid U.S. government-issued photo identification. Starting on May 7, 2025, your government-issued photo ID must be REAL ID-compliant (or you can present an alternate form of ID, such as a passport). Visit www.dhs.gov/real-id or contact your local DMV for more information. If your tour requires a visa(s), we strongly recommend that you have at least six blank visa pages available; for tours not requiring a visa(s), we recommend that your passport have at least three blank visa pages. We will send you specific visa and entry requirements after you make a reservation. You are responsible for obtaining these documents. If you need to obtain a visa, we recommend our preferred provider G3 Global Services. If you are traveling with a minor, please contact us for special entry requirements. If you are not a U.S. citizen, please contact your embassy or consulate to ensure you obtain the proper documentation.

Health and Medical Issues

We welcome all travelers, but request that you be in good health to participate in an Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. tour. All of our tours involve a reasonable amount of walking (typically two to three miles per day), often uphill or on uneven or cobblestone streets. You must be able to get on and off motorcoaches and boats on your own. We regret that we cannot provide individual assistance; in such cases you must be accompanied by a companion who will assist you. Please note that many of our itineraries, for reasons beyond our control, do not accommodate wheelchairs. Please call or e-mail us to inquire, and we will do our best to answer any questions you may have. We ask that all guests review our guidelines for health on tour, which can be found on our website: www.odysseys-unlimited.com/travel-health.

While we do our best to accommodate food allergy concerns, we cannot guarantee zero cross-contamination.

Air Transportation

Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. includes in its tour price round-trip economy air from designated departure cities as shown and contracts with those airlines the company feels provide the level of service, routings, and value necessary for your entire trip. While another airline may offer a more direct connection, it may be at a price unavailable at the lower group rates. You will receive your preliminary air schedule approximately 2½ months prior to departure. Please note that seat assignment on your international flight is usually done at airport check-in. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. is unable to guarantee any seat assignments. Due to the nature of tour operator tickets, other restrictions apply, including, but not limited to, frequent flyer mileage accrual, stopovers, alternate travel dates, upgrades, and airline taxes and fees. If you prefer to make your own travel arrangements, booking the tour “Land Only” is available on most tours.
