

Tahiti and French Polynesia

TAHITI AND FRENCH POLYNESIA UNDER SAIL

Experience a glimpse of paradise on Earth as you set sail for the idyllic islands and motus of one of French Polynesia's most beautiful archipelagos. Formed over millennia by underwater volcanic activity, Tahiti and the celebrated Society Islands—notably Mo'orea, Ra'iatea, Taha'a, Bora Bora, and Huahine—distill the essence and allure of the South Pacific.

Explore French Polynesia's spectacular history, rich culture, and unique topography on a luxury itinerary that includes a stay at the 5-star INTERCONTINENTAL TAHITI RESORT & SPA in Pape'ete and a seven night cruise aboard the WIND SPIRIT, a 5-star sailing yacht. Choose from a list of optional excursions at an additional cost to curate your own adventure and enjoy unmatched small ship sailing amid the unparalleled splendor of the South Pacific—where a reverence for nature coexists with time-honored agrarian traditions and the material and spirit world is revealed in esoteric marae, or ceremonial sites.

Extolled for their mesmerizing landscapes and rich cultural traditions, the mystical pull of these serene isles is impossible to resist.

Dear University of Michigan Alumni Travelers,

Travel is an enriching part of our lives, connecting us to new worlds, new friends, and new adventures. Today, planning a trip requires a lot. At the Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, we've spent 55-plus years planning, perfecting, and executing extraordinary trips for Michigan travelers—trips you'd expect from, and for, the Leaders and Best. These adventures will take you beyond an ordinary visit and dive into the culture, history, cuisine, and lives of the locals at your destination.

Here are a few of the highlights you can expect from us ...

Convenience: Our experience pays off. Every detail is planned and taken care of for you; all you have to do is pack your bag. The hard part is selecting where to go next.

Educational Enrichment: All trips include educational content, with some featuring expert U-M faculty and staff traveling with your group.

Exclusive Michigan Explorations: Our tours are limited to 12-28 Michigan travelers, allowing for spontaneous encounters and a great deal of independence wherever your journey takes you.

We invite you to explore the range of our collection at alumni.umich.edu/travel/. Our travel team is also happy to assist you at 855.764.0064 or alumnitravel@umich.edu.

CUSTOMIZE YOUR ADVENTURE

In addition to enjoying the lavish amenities of this 5-star sailing yacht and several included outings, our unique itinerary allows you to choose from a robust list* of optional excursions that are available at an additional cost. Among the many options to scuba, snorkel, and explore the emerald-green peaks and blue lagoons of the Society Islands are the following standout experiences:

- ◆ Photographer's Eye View of Mo'orea walking and 4x4 driving tour accompanied by a professional photographer, who offers tips for the best shots on the island.
- ◆ Harvest Your Own Pearl adventure that sends you swimming over oyster beds and coral gardens, then diving for your own Tahitian black pearl in Ra'iatea.
- ◆ Vanilla Plantation and Snorkeling excursion to the "vanilla island" of Taha'a to visit a small family plantation followed by snorkeling, potentially among stingrays.
- ◆ Snorkel Safari and Stingray Encounter in Bora Bora's coral gardens to see butterfly fish, groupers, and hundreds of rainbow-colored species.
- ◆ Huahine By Jet Ski to enjoy magnificent views of the island's lagoon on a WaveRunner, followed by the chance to swim in the waters near Motu Tefareari'i.

A full list of optional excursions will be provided prior to departure.*

THE LURE OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC

The turquoise waters and pristine white-sand beaches of French Polynesia have captivated visitors for centuries. A dreamscape long before explorers Captain James Cook, Samuel Wallis, and Louis de Bougainville fell under their spell in the 1700s, this fabled earthly paradise was among the last places in the world to be settled by humans.

Today, Tahitian folklore traditions and mythology are entwined with the legacy of Ma'ohi ancestors, ancient Samoan mariners, and European explorers who used the stars, sun, tides, and flight patterns of birds to navigate the Pacific Ocean to these idyllic shores.

Seared into the collective consciousness by the paintings of Post-Impressionist artist Paul Gauguin, this fantasia of 118 islands and atolls remains steeped in the legends of a polytheistic society.

Day 7

Today the ship arrives in Bora Bora, where you

Point Venus Lighthouse

Bora Bora Day 8

Choose from a morning at leisure or opt to take a snorkel safari and stingray excursion, which includes a guided tour on a lagoon cruiser. Once past the famous Motu Tapu, you will stop at a shallow sandbank, a favorite spot for stingray sightings. With your guide's assistance, you will be able to touch these gentle creatures as they swim an effortless ballet around you. Later, an included excursion takes you to the private Motu Tapu for a Tahitian-inspired dinner. (B,L,D)

Huahine Day 9

The optional Sacred Sights & Cultural Walk excursion gives you the opportunity to ride on an open-air truck between the ocean and a woodland of towering mape trees to the settlement of Maeva—the ancient religious center of Huahine-Nui where you'll see many 16th century marae as well as former homes and fortification walls. After an afternoon at leisure aboard the ship, attend the Captain's Farewell Reception. (B,L,R,D)

Pape'ete/Disembark Day 10

Explore Tahiti's east coast with a visit to the former home of American author James Norman Hall, best known for Mutiny on the Bounty, and see Point Venus—named for the observatory Captain Cook established here in 1769. Day-room accommodations are open to you in the INTERCONTINENTAL TAHITI. Continue to the airport for your return flight home. (B)

Arrive in home city Day 11

Arrive back in your home city.
