Go biking in the Douro Valley wine country and discover lush river valley vineyards that lie beneath the hilltop castles. Meander up one of Lisbon's lofty hills to the Alfama neighborhood or take famous Tram 28 to discover the capital city's tiny neighborhoods with baroque streets and dazzling statues. DAY 2 - LISBON: LAND TOUR START DATE

The history and traditions of Lisbon and New World discoveries will be unveiled on our afternoon discovery tour of Lisbon aboard a 'Tuk-Tuk' – a motorized three-wheeler. Explore the oldest areas of the city, iconic monuments and get breathtaking views from the top of some of the city's famous Seven Hills. Delve into the city's historic Alfama quarter, rich with Moorish tiled buildings and narrow cobblestone alleyways. Later, you may find yourself walking through the Belém district from where sailing ships once set forth to find unknown lands. Admire the Discoveries Monument honoring Henry the Navigator, who led Portugal's expeditions into the New World in the 15th century; then marvel at the UNESCO World Heritage site, Jerónimos Monastery. Tonight, we join fellow travel companions at our welcome dinner and discuss our journey ahead.

DAY 3 - LISBON

Enjoy a free day today to explore Lisbon on your own. Maybe ride on Tram 28 that takes you through some of the city's most prominent neighborhoods to see popular attractions such as St. George's Castle. The funicular railway travels up steep hills of the old town for more exploration of Alfama's winding streets past charming shops, cozy restaurants, exotic gardens and traditional Fado clubs. Consider joining our optional excursion to Sintra, a fairytale-like town and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Streets are lined with pastel-colored houses surrounded by lush hills that roll down to the Atlantic along the coast. Some of the must-see sights are the colorful Pena Palace, built in the Romanticism style; the Gothic Palácio Nacional; and the ancient walls of Castelo dos Mouros, perched high above the city. Visit the Quinta da Regaleira estate containing an extensive and enigmatic system of tunnels. Its "Initiation Well" is a steep 27-meter staircase that leads directly underground and connects with other tunnels via a labyrinth of underground walkways. Upon return to Lisbon, enjoy your evening at leisure.

During the 12th century it was the religious center for the Knights Templar, a secretive and powerful religious order based in the Convento de Cristo. Today it is one of Portugal's finest national monuments. See beautiful Almourol Castle on the banks of the Rio Tago which was used by the Knights Templar as a strong hold on the frontier between the Christians and the North African Moors. After lunch, we continue north and arrive in Porto. Enjoy a free evening to explore the city.

Admire monuments such as the Luis I Bridge, Porto Se Cathedral, Torres, Igreja dos Clerigos, Avenida dos Aliados, and the interior designs of Sao Bento train station. We end our tour at the famous Lello Bookstore. Even if you are not interested in books, you don't want to miss this exquisite 1906 neo-Gothic construction, with its carved plaster resembling wood and stained-glass skylight. Its intricately wrought, spiral staircase was supposedly the inspiration for 'Grand Staircase at Hogwarts' in the Harry Potter books, which JK Rowling partly wrote in Porto while working here as an English teacher from 1991 to 1993. Vila Nova de Gaia, considered the port wine capital, is just across the Douro River.
