Monday, August 15, 2022

After breakfast, take a scenic drive to the seaside town of Ardrossan where a ferry is ready to whisk you away to the Isle of Arran. On board, draw in the fresh Scottish air while admiring the passing views—the rocky coastline and green rolling hills converging into mountainous terrain.

Later today, visit a local distillery for a guided tour and tasting. Slàinte!

Return to the mainland by ferry, arriving at the hotel this evening for dinner at leisure—either at the hotel or at one of the nearby restaurants.

Overnight: Malmaison Glasgow (B,L)

Day 4: Glasgow / Stirling / Fort William

Tuesday, August 16, 2022

Following breakfast, continue the journey north to Stirling, where the Lowlands meet the Highlands, for a guided tour of stately Stirling Castle and its lovely gardens. Known as one of Scotland's grandest castles, it looms over many of the most important battlefields in Scottish history. Reflect atop Stirling Bridge—the site of William Wallace's victory over the English in 1297, and see Bannockburn—the spot of Robert the Bruce's defeat of the same adversary in 1314.

Often regarded as a symbol of Scottish independence and national pride, Stirling Castle has seen the life and death of almost every Scottish monarch up to the Union of the Crowns in 1603.

After lunch on your own, meet a local guide for a stroll through the quaint village of Luss, situated on the shores of Loch Lomond. Bask in this Scottish landscape and explore hidden gems the area has to offer.

Later, travel up the west coast of Scotland to Fort William for dinner followed by an evening at leisure.

Overnight: Cruachan Hotel (B,D)

Day 5: Fort William / Isle of Skye / Fort William

Wednesday, August 17, 2022

This morning, venture to the most photographed castle in Scotland—the Eilean Donan—and capture an image of your own of its exterior. Easily one of the most recognizable structures, this Scottish icon is steeped in rich history. Originally built as a monastic cell in 634 AD by Bishop Donan, it was made into a castle around the 13th century. The structure sustained numerous modifications over the years until it was destroyed by the British Government in 1719. The castle laid in ruins for more than 200 years until being reconstructed as a family home by Lt. Col. John MacRae-Gilstrap in 1912.

Later, a special two-course lunch awaits, featuring fresh, local ingredients.

Take a short drive to the town of Mallaig to board a ferry bound for the Isle of Skye—an area renown for its natural beauty. Revel in a tour of the southern part of the island, overflowing with majestic mountains, enduring coastlines, and lush fields.

Today concludes with a lovely dinner at the property followed by a restful evening.

Overnight: Cruachan Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 6: Fort William / Loch Ness / Inverness

Thursday, August 18, 2022

After breakfast, continue farther north to the famous Loch Ness to visit Urquhart Castle nestled on shore. Urquhart Castle was once regarded as one of the greatest in all of the Highlands, having borne witness to some of Scotland's most dramatic historical moments. Control over the medieval fortress passed back and forth between the Scots and the English during the Wars of Independence. As those forces departed, the last government troops who occupied the castle destroyed it during the Jacobite Risings, leaving behind the ruins that stand today. Peer into medieval life—learning of the area's history from nearly 1,000 years ago—while observing a full-size trebuchet and a prison cell that is thought to have held the Gaelic bard, Dòmhall Donn.

Embark upon a serene, narrated cruise exploring the deep, mysterious waters of Loch Ness, which holds more fresh water than all of the lakes in England and Wales combined.

Later arrive to the idyllic city of Inverness on Scotland's northeast coast for brief leisure time in town. Many know Inverness as the capital of the Highlands, though it doesn't officially hold this title. Inverness has only been considered a city since 2000. The name comes from the Gaelic "Inbhir Nis," which means "Mouth of the River Ness." Inverness Castle is the site where Macbeth murdered King Duncan in Shakespeare's play.

After an enriching day of exploration, enjoy a relaxing dinner and a peaceful slumber at Kingsmills Hotel.

Overnight: Kingsmills Hotel (B,D)

Day 7: Inverness / Aberdeen

Friday, August 19, 2022

This morning, experience private early access to Culloden Battlefield—the site of the final Jacobite Rising. One of the most harrowing battles in Scottish history, the Battle of Culloden only lasted an hour but would change Scotland and Highland culture forever. Inside the Culloden Visitor Centre, learn more about the conflict from both sides through interactive displays and artifacts before walking the actual battlefield. Reflect on this rebellious event while viewing the headstones of clansmen who gave their lives for the Jacobite cause. An optional heritage excursion, described below, will be available for those wishing to delve into their Scottish ancestry and possible connections with the battle.

Seeds of Change: the Diaspora, Family Ancestry and Culloden ($72/person)

Enjoy coffee or tea during a 30-minute, one-on-one session with a local expert to discuss family history. The expert will research one family name per person (the name is needed ahead of time so that the expert can prepare). Each guest will receive a souvenir scroll detailing their name's history. This optional activity is available for any person with a European surname. This optional excursion must be booked in advance through our Guest Services team. Price is subject to change and non-refundable within 90 days of departure.

Following lunch, journey to Dufftown to taste the world's favorite single malt Scotch whisky at Glenfiddich Distillery (or similar). Built by hand by William Grant and his children in 1886, this Scottish whisky monument has barely changed over the years—the same warehouse and mash rooms exist today. Earthen floors, stone walls, and an age-old ambience conjure an intimate atmosphere in which to sip the fruits of Glenfiddich's labor. One taste of their iconic single malt whisky reminds you that all good things really do take time.

Retreat to Macdonald Norwood Hall Hotel for dinner and this evening's stay.

Overnight: Macdonald Norwood Hall Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 8: Aberdeen / Edinburgh

Saturday, August 20, 2022

After breakfast, travel south down Scotland's tranquil eastern coast, catching glimpses of the North Sea. Arrive in Edinburgh for a guided panoramic city tour of Scotland's beloved capital since the 15th century—through its Old and New Towns. This UNESCO World Heritage Site teems with remarkable architecture, medieval fixtures, and Georgian-inspired buildings, all converging at Princes Street with a unique view of Edinburgh Castle. See Calton Hill and its National Monument, rightfully giving Edinburgh its nickname: the "Athens of the North."

Afterward, visit the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the previous residence of Mary, Queen of Scots that was founded as a monastery in 1128. This property once hosted other royalty, including the Bonnie Prince Charlie and the current Queen of England, Elizabeth II. Tour the 14 historic state apartments and imagine life of yesteryear while marveling at the intricate drapery, old wood paneling, and ornately designed ceilings. The Queen's Gallery at the Palace of Holyroodhouse hosts a program of changing exhibitions from the Royal Collection. Behold the natural beauty of the palace gardens' rolling lush green pastures, vibrant flowers, and Wentworth Elm trees, which were previously thought to have been extinct.

This evening presents an unforgettable performance of one of the most iconic events on this city's calendar—the Edinburgh Military Tattoo—as the sun sets against the backdrop of Edinburgh's grand castle. The Tattoo has a proud Scottish history, stretching back almost seven decades initially inspired by a simple show called "Something About a Soldier" performed in 1949 at the Ross Bandstand which is still located in Princess Street Gardens just below the Castle. This event celebrates the skills of military bands and display teams from the British Armed Forces, the Commonwealth, and military teams throughout the world. Prepare for goosebumps as the strains of bagpipes fill the night air along the beating of drums. Lit torches, flying flags, an impressive light display, dancing, colorful dress, and intricate marching formations complete the emotionally stirring pageantry. Among the many favorites of spectators is the Top Secret Drum Corps of Switzerland. Their talent and precision is a marvel to behold and must be seen to be appreciated. In a previous performance, the Corps' drumsticks also served as flutes! Cheer and clap along with the crowd at this first-class synchronized and entertaining show. Be sure to dress in layers for the outdoors as the seating in the esplanade is uncovered.

Overnight: Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel (B,D)

Day 9: Edinburgh / St. Andrews / Edinburgh

Sunday, August 21, 2022

Today visit Glamis Castle—a living, breathing monument to Scottish heritage. Here at the family home of the Earls of Strathmore and Kinghorne, an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour awaits. Enjoy refreshments in the 16th century kitchen. See why Glamis Castle has become a stunning treasure that is rich with colorful vitality—from remarkable paintings to unique furniture pieces and precise architectural details. This castle was gifted by Robert the Bruce to the Bowes-Lyon family in 1372 and was originally a royal hunting lodge. It's perhaps best known as the childhood home of the Queen Mother, the birthplace of Princess Margaret, and the setting of Shakespeare's Macbeth. Visitors are impressed with the estate, comprising more than 13,500 acres, and are intrigued by the mysterious, strange, and ghostly tales attached to it. Secret chambers have always been associated with Glamis. It's said if one counts the windows on the outside and compares that number with the windows counted on the inside, there are two windows missing, indicating at least one secret room.

Delight in a musical tour of the history and workings of the bagpipe. Learn the basic finger work of piping and take a turn to "blaw and squeeze" the instrument. This fun and informative workshop features anecdotes from the piping world along with loads of giggles.

Later, at charming St. Andrews, drive by the Old Course and explore the local cafés and boutique shops during leisure time. Admire the medieval architecture of the university and marvel at the perfectly manicured golf courses here, at what is considered to be the birthplace of golf. Gazing towards the water, notice an iconic piece of Scottish landscape—the West Sands—famous for the opening sequence of Chariots of Fire.

This grand adventure concludes with a special, five-course farewell dinner at the Cannonball Restaurant & Bar to reminisce over the past week's travels and bid soraidh ("farewell" in Gaelic) to Scotland. Savor a fine meal of award-winning, seasonal Scottish dishes in the heart of the old town with fabulous views of the city, Edinburgh Castle, and beyond. The restaurant's owners (a husband and wife duo) continue their family's century-old tradition of creating Scottish dishes with an Italian twist, paying homage to their heritage.

Overnight: Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel (B,D)

Day +2: Arrive in Dublin, Ireland

Friday, August 12, 2022

Welcome to Ireland! Upon arrival, meet with a local guide for an early afternoon walking tour of lively Dublin, named "Europe's friendliest" twice by TripAdvisor and one of Lonely Planet's "Top 10 Cities in the World" to visit.

Dublin is a city with a soul—a place that retains and appreciates the importance of genuine human interaction. Founded in 841 by the Vikings, the area's interesting past and many monuments tell of its fascinating history. Today, this cosmopolitan capital of the Irish Republic is host to more than one million residents. Taking advantage of its compact size, the informative and entertaining walking tour of Dublin allows visitors to soak in the captivating atmosphere and buzz.

Start with a dedication to Ireland's most famous literary son at the Oscar Wilde statue in Merrion Square. Continue past the sprawling campus of Trinity College, and pause at the imposing gates. Stop at the Molly Malone statue to hear the part mythological, part historical tale of Molly Malone, who was immortalized in the famous song named after her. See Christchurch Cathedral, Dublin's oldest working structure, which has been welcoming pilgrims for more than 1,000 years. Continue through the Temple Bar area, a pleasant cobbled area full of restaurants and shops during the day and a lively warren of bustling bars after nightfall. Finally, cross over the River Liffey by the unique, white-arched Ha'penny Bridge.

Next, visit EPIC, The Irish Museum of Emigration. This state-of-the-art, interactive, and award-winning facility is located inside the beautiful vaults of the 1820 Custom House Quarter building in Dublin's Docklands—the original departure point for so many of Ireland's emigrants. It inspires and guides a journey of discovery with stories of Irish emigration around the world, from early times to modern day. Over centuries, some 10 million people have left the island of Ireland. Step through 20 themed galleries to learn why people chose to leave, see how they influenced the world, and feel the connection between descendants and Ireland today. Via engaging displays, short movies, and interesting artifacts, remarkable stories of sacrifice, endurance, and adventure are brought to life. EPIC is a must-see to learn more about Ireland, and for those interested in personal Irish ancestry, the Irish Family History Centre is also located here.

Afterward, check into The Davenport—home for the next two nights—for a relaxing evening at leisure.

Overnight: The Davenport

Day +3: Dublin

Saturday, August 13, 2022

Awaken and indulge in a full Irish breakfast at the hotel followed by time to explore Dublin at leisure. Perhaps visit a café for Irish coffee and conversation with the locals, pop into one of the charming shops on Grafton Street, or simply meander the cobblestone roads and take in the picturesque sights of this bustling city.

On tap this afternoon is Guinness Brewery's exclusive Connoisseur Experience at the Guinness Storehouse. Back in 1759, an enterprising brewer named Arthur Guinness took out a 9,000-year lease on this brewery for an annual rent of £45. Opened in 1904, the Storehouse was an operational plant for fermenting and storing Guinness. Today, the brewery is Ireland's most popular tourist attraction and Europe's largest stout-producing brewery. It also features a very fine exhibition dedicated to the Guinness story.

Throughout seven floors, guests learn the craft of making this quintessential brew—the ingredients, brewing process, time, and passion. One exhibit illustrates how the brew has been marketed and sold in more than 150 countries.

At the Guinness Academy, learn the art of pulling a pint of Guinness—a six-step ritual as legendary as the beer itself—taking 119.5 seconds from iconic surge of the pour to the eventual settle. In the private Connoisseur Bar, relish a personal Guinness tasting like no other. Taste the different types of Guinness while an expert guide/barman orchestrates a journey right to the heart of the black stuff. Raise a glass and toast Sláinte!—an Irish expression meaning "to good health."

Later, experience an unforgettable evening of dinner, entertainment, and Irish storytelling at O'Shea's of Talbot Street. This family-run traditional bar and restaurant charms guests with old-world appeal, delicious homemade food, and regular live Irish music and dance. Wooden floors and exposed brick walls of this Georgian building set the warm atmosphere for international and Irish cuisine, including dishes featuring Kerry beef and locally caught salmon. After a day of sightseeing, unwind with the welcoming staff and perhaps savor a specialty whisky or beer selection with a turn on the dance floor.

Itinerary:

Day 10: Edinburgh / St. Andrews

Monday, August 22, 2022

En route to St. Andrews, visit the Falkirk Wheel.

Standing 115 feet tall, the Falkirk Wheel is an exceptional feat of modern engineering and an inspirational work of art. Designed to reconnect the Forth and Clyde Canal with the Union Canal, this remarkable and elegant mechanical marvel is the only rotating boat lift in the world. The Falkirk Wheel lies at the end of a reinforced concrete aqueduct that connects, via the Roughcastle tunnel and a double staircase lock, to the Union Canal. Boats entering the Wheel's upper gondola are lowered, along with the water that they float in, to the basin below. At the same time, an equal weight rises up, lifted in the other gondola. Visitors enjoy "The Falkirk Wheel Experience," using special "trip" boats at the site, and the distinctive new visitor center gives an absolutely sensational viewpoint from which to see things in action.

Continue to St. Andrews—the Home of Golf—and enjoy lunch at a local pub/restaurant. The food scene here is on point!

Afterward, set out on a walking tour of the legendary Old Course. A bucket list pilgrimage site for golf lovers, follow in the footsteps of legends, and experience why pro golfer Jack Nicklaus said, "I fell in love with it the first day I played it. There's just no other golf course that is even remotely close."

The remainder of the day and evening are at leisure.

Overnight: Old Course Hotel (L)
