THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS – WESTERN ITINERARY

Feel the thrill of encountering the flora and fauna that famously inspired Darwin—and in his footsteps, generations of nature lovers. Undiscovered by Europeans until the 16th century, the Galapagos Islands hold a central position in modern scientific and evolutionary history. In a place where human presence is relatively minimal, take the opportunity to observe and photograph these remarkable species up close—either sitting quietly to watch blue-footed boobies or snorkeling with inquisitive and playful sea lions.

Dear University of Michigan Alumni Traveler,

Join fellow alumni and friends as we explore the Galapagos Islands. Designated the first UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978, the Galapagos Islands have been described as a “unique living museum and showcase of evolution,” and they are home to a fascinating array of wildlife inhabiting an unspoiled ecosystem, living in harmony with their human visitors.

This exciting journey features a day of guided touring in Quito plus an intimate cruise through the archipelago with up-close access to endemic species. Expert naturalists guide you through the wonders of this national park, whale sanctuary, and marine reserve.

Accommodations for this adventure are aboard the Isabela II, a 40-guest vessel with spacious cabins, local cuisine, and a staff dedicated to ensuring both your comfort and maximum enjoyment of this truly extraordinary destination and its diverse inhabitants. And sailing by small ship allows for flexibility in the itinerary to maximize wildlife viewing, as well as access to exclusive ports.

Stateroom availability is limited. With significant savings of up to $800 per couple, we anticipate this tour will fill quickly, so be certain to reserve your spot today.

Take a late afternoon stroll along the main street of Puerto Ayora before embarking on Isabela II.

Join the captain this evening for a cocktail and briefing on the exciting activities to come.
Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 4: Bartolomé / Santiago: Sullivan Bay

Friday, April 16, 2021

One of today's highlights includes a panoramic view of the Galapagos from a special vantage point—an overlook atop Bartolomé Island. On a pristine day, more than 10 islands can be seen from this viewpoint.

Return to the beach to board dinghies for a cruise around Pinnacle Rock, formed by an eroded tuff-stone cone—light limestone created by the accumulation of small volcanic elements. Pinnacle Rock is home for a small colony of the flightless Galapagos penguin, which shares the area with sea lions and other marine birds.

After lunch, explore Sullivan Bay on the east coast of Santiago Island featuring a white coral sand beach that's ideal for swimming. This location has some of the best snorkeling within the archipelago. See and feel the volcanic origin of Galapagos by traversing the walking trail across a lava field consisting of lava that flowed here in 1897, and the lava shapes are the enigmatic volcanic features.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 5: Santa Cruz: Dragon Hill / Santiago: Salt Mine James Bay

Saturday, April 17, 2021

The island of Santa Cruz is the only one with six different vegetation zones. Pit craters, Scalesia forest, cacti and ferns are found here. After breakfast, set off on a walk, passing a lagoon frequented by shorebirds, ducks, and American flamingos. Continuing inland, the trail offers a beautiful view of the bay and the western islands of the archipelago, as well as the chance of observing land iguanas. Afterward, snorkel from the shore in hopes of spotting rays and green turtles.

Later, visit James Bay on Santiago Island, where Charles Darwin spent six days exploring in 1835, encountering finches, mockingbirds, lava lizards, yellow warblers, as well as Galapagos doves, hawks, and flamingos. Take note of the fascinating geological formations as you hike uphill for an incredible panoramic view of a crater filled with brackish water. The salt from this lagoon was mined in the 20th century, but the businesses didn't prosper.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 6: Isabela: Punta Vicente Roca / Fernandina: Punta Espinoza

Sunday, April 18, 2021

Explore the captivating coast of Isabela Island by dinghy, seeking out abundant wildlife including colonies of Galapagos fur seals, the nesting sites of Nazca boobies, flightless cormorants, penguins, and marine iguanas. Depending on conditions, there may be a chance to snorkel along the cliffs, hopefully in the company of green sea turtles. Back on board, navigate along the Bolivar Channel, where nutrient-rich upwellings provide fertile fishing grounds for cetaceans.

Then visit the island of Fernandina, the youngest island of the archipelago and arguably one of the most pristine ecosystems on the planet. Punta Espinoza boasts an amazing combination of barren landscapes and abundant wildlife, all dominated by the lofty volcano at the heart of the island. Highlights to spot include hawks, penguins, huge numbers of marine iguanas, and the famous flightless cormorant, with its beguiling blue eyes.

This evening, join fellow guests and crew for a festive farewell toast followed by dinner.

What Guests Are Saying:

"The hotel accommodations were amazing. The hotel staff at both of the hotels were great. The crew of the Isabella II was great. Isabella II convinced us that trips on small ships are the only way to go. We couldn't believe the extraordinary value we received from Orbridge on this trip. The tour guides went over the top to explain what we were experiencing.

Orbridge is the best! You did everything you agreed to do, did it on time, provided great tour guides and services as we moved from point to point. We will travel with Orbridge again."

-Mike & Sally K., Missouri City, TX

"This trip was an exceptional experience! Not only were the locations we visited superb in every aspect but the ground support exceeded all expectations.

The yacht Isabella II was the perfect size for our group. The entire staff was professional. The naturalists were at the core of our experience. Their extensive knowledge of the unique flora, fauna and marine life of each island was generously shared with us.

This program provided us with access to unique locations on our planet that should be preserved as they are but are made available to those interested in understanding the delicate nature of our ecosystems. The program was well planned, the guides excellent, accommodations first class."

-Nancy & Greg S., Kihei, HI

"My overall experience was outstanding and I would definitely go on an Orbridge tour again with no hesitation.

The hotels were exceptional and the food everywhere was outstanding. Also, the coordination and logistics were flawless. There were no hiccups or misses for the entirety of the trip. Guides for both Galapagos & Machu Picchu were absolutely top shelf in terms of knowledge and experience.”

–Dan F., Spokane, WA

“This was a superb itinerary and was spectacularly organized. We loved the program. Mashpi was terrific, as was the entire trip in the Galapagos - the ship and crew were wonderful - the sights and itinerary were great as well. We thoroughly enjoyed it! Our transfers to Lima, and the trip throughout Peru, including the Machu Picchu trip, were terrific. All of our guides were wonderful. We learned so much and really enjoyed the program immensely. Spectacular!

We would like to travel to many places, but we will come to Orbridge in the future.”

–Linda E., Hanover, NH

“This was an excellent program, the park guides were just amazing with their knowledge, experience, and precious personalities. We became a little family although we were only together for a few days. The Galapagos Islands are magical and mystical and a once in a lifetime thrill for us. We appreciate all that continues to be done to preserve this unique environment.”

–Carla & Louis S., Austin, TX

"The Galapagos Islands trip was a bucket list, anniversary trip for me and truly was the trip of a lifetime. The program is polished, professional, educational, active, engaging, and incredibly well organized.

Our naturalists were tireless in their enthusiasm for each new day and experience. I'll never forget the twice daily snorkel opportunities, the scenery above and below the surface of the ocean and the great care each member of the crew or staff took with their respective jobs."

-Knox B., Greensboro, NC

"This was our third or fourth trip with Orbridge! We were very satisfied and will not hesitate to book with Orbridge again.

The program was very well designed, well managed, and, above all else, had arrangements to meet our needs and objectives of our travel plan.

We look forward to an opportunity to travel to the Galapagos Islands again with Orbridge at a different time of year to see the vegetation and the wildlife at a dry part of the year."

-Dale & Kathleen E., Highland Heights, KY

"Scientific, historical and cultural experience was amazing. The hikes on the trip were amazing... the contact and interaction with wildlife was extraordinary as were the guides who led us.

The accommodations and service at the hotels and the Isabela II were excellent. The level of customer care is the best I have ever experienced.

From day one to entering security for the trip home, I was well cared for and served."

-Tim J., Worcester, MA

"The seamlessness of the arrangements was a great value for this tour. There were many pieces of the tour that Orbridge fit together well. All of the guides in Ecuador and Peru were approachable making it easy to ask questions and have conversations instead of just being talked to.

I can't imagine coordinating a trip of this caliber myself. The hotels were gems and the activities were perfectly paced. I never felt rushed or that an activity was a waste of time. The attention to detail and the knowledge of the guides exceeded my expectations. Everyday was a new adventure to enjoy!"

-Shawn & Jeff H., Abington, PA

"Traveling with Orbridge was fantastic. They had everything covered. Even though we arrived very late in Quito, they were there with transport to the hotel and there were no glitches. I never had to think about how to do anything, and if we needed anything or had any questions, they were there with the answers."

-Mike & Barb P., Conifer, CO

"The guides on the Isabela II are very knowledgeable and well trained, so every excursion was well planned, exciting and informative. We were impressed and gratified that everyone we encountered on the ship and the islands were serious about the preservation and protection of the environment and its animals and plants."

-Jennifer & JB P., Los Gatos, CA

"My wife and I travel a lot, but this was our first organized trip since 1997. Orbridge did a great job in finding excellent guides, great hotels in central locations, and always had wonderful meals, with an awareness of dietary limitations."

-Jon & Rebecca G., Hickory, NC

It was spectacular at every level.

We loved the small boat - perfect size, the variety of opportunities available (each equally great, so at times hard to choose), the guides and staff who were so responsive and knowledgeable, and the logistics coordination - every detail was handled.

We were very pleasantly surprised at how many snorkeling opportunities were available.”

–Karen & Steven H., Columbus, OH

“Touring the Galápagos Islands while being on the Isabela II was such a highlight! The guides were so helpful and made it so special... they just took care of us! And, with Machu Picchu, our guide took such good care of us and we really enjoyed his guidance, knowledge and passion regarding all that he showed and told us.

Every part of the trip was outstanding! We did not have to worry about anything as it was all covered and planned for.

Orbridge did an amazing job with this trip! I can't wait to travel with your company again!”

–Sally B., Charlotte, NC

“Our tour guides and naturalists were awesome. All the water activities and wildlife expeditions were the best! One of the best vacations I have been on. Very well executed trip. It was like paradise!”

–Cheryl A., Plano, TX

“When we received the brochure, this opportunity resonated with us as a trip we had long hoped to make. This program made it easy to fulfill a dream.

We were very impressed with the efficiency of this program and staff. Everything was taken care of, everything was explained to us, and we always knew what to expect.

We gained so much knowledge and understanding from the naturalists, they were with us all the time, were so friendly and personable.

We would travel with Orbridge again in a heartbeat.”

–Randy & Jan W., Brooklyn, MN

“All of the guides were excellent—all knowledgeable, friendly, and invariably patient.

This was an outstanding experience, one that I've waited for for a very long time. All of the wildlife amazed and pleased me. Thank goodness for this National Park.”

Everything we did was amazing! There just are not enough words to express how pristine and unique and beautiful it was.

Life changing! A dream come true!”

For those who would like to enjoy the beauty of dawn in the forest, early morning activities are organized before breakfast. Spot birds and visit a hummingbird garden (host to 32 hummingbird species) with breakfast al fresco. The birds will be active and calling, and the views are often the most spectacular.

After lunch, take an opportunity to view the Mashpi Forest canopy during a guided ride aboard the Dragonfly—an aerial cable car that offers a unique and spectacular way to see an expanse of the reserve. Go for the entire two-hour ride, or opt to combine the Dragonfly experience with a guided nature or waterfall hike.

Designed for two people to use at once, you can pedal between two points of the forest approximately 655 feet apart. Next, climb the Observation Tower to take in the reserve in its entirety, and watch the sun set behind the clouds.

This evening, join fellow travelers to hear a collection of lectures by a resident biologist or naturalist, perhaps including “Secret Wildlife of Mashpi: the Camera Trap Project,” “The Chocó: a Biological Hotspot” about the formation and diversity of the Chocó, or talks about current scientific research projects.

Relax and sample traditional flavors during lunch at a lovely local restaurant before exploring this region of Inca sites and indigenous villages.

In the village of Pisac, discover a vibrant market with the colorful handicrafts for which this region is known: weavings, musical instruments, alpaca sweaters, jewelry, ceramics, and much more. Find a fruit and vegetable market at the main square where villagers from miles around visit, barter, and shop. Day 10: Sacred Valley / Machu Picchu

Thursday, April 22, 2021

After breakfast, make your way through the intimate cobblestone streets of Ollantaytambo, a "living" Inca town. Here, Inca descendants inhabit the largely unchanged homes of their ancestors and continue to maintain ancient customs and traditions. The massive fortress, perched among steep stone terraces carved into the hillside, is where the Inca won their greatest victory against the conquistadores.

Next, board a Vistadome train to Machu Picchu, the most important site of the vast Inca empire. Enjoy views of the mountains, villages, and Inca vestiges as you descend into the Sacred Valley. From there, a short bus ride takes you to the archaeological site of "The Lost City of the Incas." Begin a guided exploration of the enigmatic citadel. As it lies before you, learn about the archaeology and history of Intihuatana (the Sun Dial), the Sacred Plaza, and the Temple of the Sun, with plenty of time to wander, hike, and take pictures of the photogenic site.

This evening, share impressions of your day while dining with your travel companions at your Machu Picchu hotel.

Day 12: Cusco / Saqsayhuaman / Kenko / Villa Tipón

Saturday, April 24, 2021

This morning, explore Cusco's streets still flanked in places by Inca walls built with gigantic carved granite blocks. View the unique masonry up close to truly appreciate the astonishing perfection and mass of this true Inca marvel. Walk the plaza of Saqsayhuaman, an Inca complex overlooking Cusco, with stones so enormous the largest is estimated to weigh up to 200 tons.

Visit Kenko archaeological sites before going to the colorful San Pedro local market, which offers a sense of everyday life in Cusco. Mid-day, retreat to Villa Tipón, which is just outside the city of Cusco and set in the midst of awe-inspiring mountains and incredible gardens full of vividly colored flowers. A local family hosts a delicious Peruvian lunch followed by a traditional Shaman performing an Andean ceremony.
