Dear University of Michigan Alumni Travelers,

Travel is an enriching part of our lives, connecting us to new worlds, new friends, and each other. Today, planning a trip requires a lot. At the Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, we've spent 55-plus years planning, perfecting, and executing extraordinary trips for Michigan travelers – trips you'd expect from, and for, the Leaders and Best. These adventures will take you beyond an ordinary visit and dive into the culture, history, cuisine, and lives of the locals at your destination.

Here are a few of the highlights you can expect from us ...

Convenience: Our experience pays off. Every detail is planned and taken care of for you; all you have to do is pack your bag. The hard part is selecting where to go next.

Educational Enrichment: All trips include educational content, with some featuring expert U-M faculty and staff traveling with your group.

Michigan Small Group Explorations: Our tours are limited to 12-28 Michigan travelers, allowing for spontaneous encounters and a great deal of independence wherever your journey takes you.

We invite you to explore the range of our collection at alumni.umich.edu/travel.

Our travel team is also happy to assist you at 855.764.0064 or alumnitravel@umich.edu.

Plaza of the Cathedral, Old Havana

Day 1 | Miami, Florida | Havana, Cuba

Depart Miami for Havana. ✈️ Arrive, transfer 🚗 and check in to the La Reserva Vedado.

Tonight, gather for a Welcome Dinner at a local paladar, a privately owned and operated restaurant. Meet, mingle and support local entrepreneurs on your first night in Cuba.

Day 2 | Havana | Regla | Guanabacoa

Afro-Cuban Havana. Join Cuban writer and activist Roberto Zurbano for a walking tour of UNESCO-inscribed La Habana Vieja, Old Havana. Learn about the engrossing history and culture of the Afro-Cuban people. Then, visit Beyond Roots, an independent shop dedicated to promoting Afro-Cuban culture through educational experiences and workshops, to meet and talk with the founder. Continue with a visit to Regla, known for its long traditions of Santería, Palo Monte and other religions. See the Iglesia de Nuestra Señora de Regla, an important historical church, which houses the black Madonna and other shrines. Next, visit Guanabacoa, the center of Havana's Afro-Cuban culture, and step inside the house of a Babalawo, a priest of the Yoruba religion called Ifá. This intimate experience offers firsthand insight into the practice.

Savor a lunch of typical Afro-Cuban dishes.

Afro-Cuban Dance. Enjoy a special gathering with local dancers. Born and raised in Havana, dancing has been a part of their lives since childhood and each has been a part of dance troupes and studios through the years. Listen as they share their passions for teaching tango and salsa. Perhaps try a few steps yourself!

Day 3 | Havana

In-Depth Havana. Explore Callejón de Hamel, a colorful alleyway that is a central part of Afro-Cuban culture. This eclectic street features rumba drummers and dancers, vibrant murals and sculptures, and art made from recycled items. As you stroll, learn about a variety of Afro-Cuban religions practiced in Cuba. Next, join an expert for a tour of Havana's National Museum of Fine Arts and see mixed media, paintings and sculptures by Afro-Cuban artists. Enjoy a group lunch at a paladar.

Vintage Car Ride. Thrill to a drive in a classic convertible along Havana's 4.3-mile Malecón sea drive and chat with your friendly driver. Then, visit the famous, historic Hotel Nacional.

Enrichment: The Cuban Economy.

Day 4 | Havana

Enrichment: Empowering Cuban Women.

Jewish Center & Cuban Dance. Visit the Sephardic Hebrew Center, where a member

Beyond Roots, Havana

Las Terrazas

of Havana's Jewish Community welcomes you and provides a tour. Next, visit local dance company Malpaso to watch dancers rehearse and speak to them about their profession and dreams. Later, gather on a terrace overlooking Havana to meet Wilfredo Benítez Munõz, Executive Director of the philanthropic Ludwig Foundation. Learn how it promotes contemporary Cuban artists and culture. Meet independent local artists and learn about their desires to pursue artistic ventures. Savor dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 5 | Matanzas | Havana

Matanzas – The Slaves' Route. Cuba underwent a long period of slavery from 1511 until 1886. Today, the Afro-Cuban legacy is particularly strong in Matanzas. Here, visit with African cultural and artistic community groups and individuals with influences throughout the province. Hear a performance by a small chamber orchestra, Camerata Jose White.

Black Madonna, Iglesia de Nuestra Señora de Regla

After lunch in Matanzas, visit the Sugar Mill Triunvirato to see the moving, 19th-century Monument to the Slaves' Rebellion.

Enjoy a group dinner this evening at the hotel.

Enrichment: Race & the Cuban Revolution.

Day 6 | Havana

Insights of Norma Guillard. This Cuban social psychologist and adjunct lecturer at the University of Havana shares stories about her work. Watch and discuss the documentary, "Maestra," about female volunteers who taught more than 700,000 Cubans to read and write during the Cuban Literacy Campaign.

Engage in enriching discussions with these female entrepreneurs. Savor lunch at a female-owned café, and later, Cuban cuisine for dinner at a local restaurant.

Enrichment: Cuban Health Care System.

Day 7 | Rural Cuba | Havana

Rural Cuba. Travel to the rural countryside as you take in the untamed views of tobacco and sugarcane fields. Visit Las Terrazas, a model socialist community, to engage with residents and learn about their conservation efforts. Also, visit and talk with the principal at a local school, stop at an artist's studio, and savor lunch of locally grown vegetables.

Enrichment: Rhythms of Cuban Music.

Raise a toast to your trip at a Farewell Dinner.

Day 8 | Havana | Miami, Florida
